To Whom It May Concern:

My partners and I contracted with SCA Design Group, Inc., for the design and construction of a commercial office building to be used as a law office. At all times, from our initial meeting throughout the entire construction process, SCA's President, Stephen Abrams, and his associates provided excellent insight, advice and service. They were always available, seven days a week, to answer questions and address our needs. Their dedication did not stop with the receipt of our Certificate of Occupancy and closing, as Stephen and his associates have continued to check on us to ensure our satisfaction. Above all, their final product exceeded all of our expectations, from the quality of the construction to the aesthetic beauty of our building.

It is without hesitation that I recommend SCA Design Group, Inc. They made the otherwise tedious and stressful process of constructing a new building a pleasant, positive and rewarding experience.

Very truly yours,

Michael W. Le Roy, Esq.
